

The WiMu Guide for WiMu families

All you need to know to experience WiMu fit for families

But is the WiMu suitable for families?

Of course !!
Even for those with small children.
It is poetic,
sometimes even a bit magical.
You can learn a lot of interesting things
and you can also have fun.

Wi.Mu. is the short name for Wine Museum.

But Wi.Mu is a very special place:
It doesn't have a collection of objects, artifacts, or works of art.
It proposes a journey in the world of wine: from hall to hall you learn a lot of things, especially about the relationship human being - wine.

What is WiMu?

and What about the castle?

The castle hosts WiMu.

Its origins are very ancient, but as for many castles in the region, during its thousand-year history
it has been renovated several times.

A relationship that began in prehistory,
still continues and has inspired many myths, traditions,
works of art and designed entire landscape,
just like those of the Langhe.

Its current appearance dates back to the mid
of the XIX century.

It can be said that this majestic building has lived four lives, each linked to one of its usages.

1

At first

It did its military service !

It was built up to spot the enemies and to organize the defenses.

Then it was transformed into a real castle, to live in.

3

Later It became a college:
It was used to go to school ■■■

4

and inside,
today,
Wi.Mu is set up !

and What you can do

You can visit.

You can even play with It

Every second Sunday of the month

WiMu family ticket becomes special.

Adults of families, who will buy the Wimunotes, will pay a reduced fee (7 € instead of 9 €).

Always available

Wimunotes: is suitable for families with children from 6 to 12 years old.

It gives interesting information and allows you to pin down things to remember.

Available in English and French.

It is for single-use only, and therefore safe to use!

But How does WiMu work?

You visit four floors, starting from the top.

First you climb to the top and then you go down along the stairs.

What about the stroller?

You can park it in the entrance, in the designated space.

Or you can use It: in this case you ask the staff how to use the lift.

What If the baby needs to be changed?

No panic!

Before the visit you can use the changing table at the ticket office.

During the visit the one at the 2^o floor, next to room 13.

And If he is hungry instead?

All under control!

Stop at the mum's space, always at the 2^o floor, next to room 13:

a little place, but quiet, with a comfortable seat for mom, the changing table and the toilet.

Respect all the anti-Covid rules. Have a nice visit!
